

is an activity enabling people facing limitations context to live a mentoring experience in a work environment, being accompanied on site by an employment professional.

A PROJECT OF REGROUPEMENT DES ORGANISMES SPÉCIALISÉS POUR L'EMPLOI DES PERSONNES HANDICAPÉES (ROSEPH)

This report is the result of the second "Connect, Coach and Match!" project, which took place in Quebec, in four regions (Côte-Nord, Mauricie, Laurentides, Montérégie) from May 6 to 20, 2019. The project was coordinated by Regroupement des organismes spécialisé pour l'emploi des personnes handicapées (ROSEPH), and funded by SPHERE.

Mentoring an exceptional person was inspired by MentorAbility from the Canadian Association for Supported Employment (CASE)

OBJECTIVES

Raise employers' awareness of people with disabilities' potential.

Validate the interest of the job seeker for a coveted domain.

Promote employment integration.

ASSESSMENT OF TWO WEEKS OF ACTIVITIES carefully prepared during the previous months

Activity 1

Experience a real interview for an available position
46 Participants

Activity 2

Experience a day or a simulated interview
26 Participants

Results

68 %
PEOPLE IN EMPLOYMENT

22 %
HAVE THE POSSIBILITY OF BEING HIRED LATER ON